Telephone Danger Zone

Protecting Yourself from Identity Theft.

The Telephone Danger Zone can be avoided by following some simple rules.

1. Never offer personal or account information over the phone unless you are certain of the caller's identity.
2. If you are unsure about the caller's identity, hang up and initiate the call yourself using a known phone number.
3. Do not call any unknown number received in a voice message or email asking for personal information.

Tip!

We will never ask for your account information in an unsolicited phone call or email.

To report any suspicious activity on your account, or if you have questions about the security of your account, you can call us at 970-351-8600 or visit any of our locations.

The security of your money and identity is as important to us as it is to you. Let's work together to protect it.
